PNBC Congress Projected Classes 2025

1. The Power of Reconciliation

Class #: 409.12

Instructor: Rev. Grady Kelly

Book: Until Unity, by Francis Chan

Objective: Provide students with the knowledge that reconciliation in a religious context: that restore broken relationships and promote peace and justice; in the Christian faith, and is associated with Jesus' death and the message of healing and peace that he brought to humanity. The goal of reconciliation is to transform people from enemies of God into saints, and to achieve this, Christians are called to be ambassadors of reconciliation.

2. God Is in Control

Class #: 2005.2

Instructor: Dr. Yashika Tippet

Book: Your God Knows: 6 Tough Questions for an Omniscient God, by Lisa Whittle

Objective: In today's world, new sources of anxiety and fear confronts us almost daily. As a result, many believers live under a constant cloud of apprehension and fear. In this class the students will focus upon the fact that some things may be out of control, but nothing catches God off guard. The One who created everything can be trusted to provide for our needs. Regardless of our circumstances, the Lord is with us to encourage and strengthen us as God leads us to victory.

3. IT -Technology

Course # 669.6

Age: 12 to Seasoned Adults

Instructor: Rev. Dr. Micah R Gaines – Michigan

Book: Multiply: Disciples Making Disciples, by Francis Chan & Mark Beuving

The definition of technology is the application of scientific knowledge for practical purposes. There are many diverse types of technology as well as the types of problems they solve. Technology varies in nature with the purpose they serve, there is one thing they all have in common; they all solve a problem.

In today's environment, we engage with various Social Media algorithms. This media refers to individuals interacting to create, share, and or exchange ideas in virtual communities and networks. Levels of social media are Facebook, X/Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn, and YouTube accounts. This class is designed to allow students to engage in

Instructor: Rev Keaton Ross

Book: Raised to Stay: Persevering in Ministry When You Have a Million Reasons to Walk Away, by Natalie Runion

This class is for the churchgoer who wants to offer ways to make worship better using technology and innovative tools for spiritual enrichment. From the foundation of the 100th Psalm this class will be an instructive for those who are integrating Facebook Live, YouTube and other streaming services in their sanctuaries. Conversations will include music ministry suggestions, teaching tools and ways to implement ideas for enthusiastic giving. The church is moving beyond the walls of a building and the apparatus to invite a broader community needs to be presentable and neat. This class will send the students home with innovative practices to immediately incorporate in their worship services.

7. Self-Care is NOT Selfish: Make it Okay to Take Care of You (For Pastoral Leaders)

Course #900.10

Instructor: Dr. John Mendez

Materials will Be Provided by the Instructor

The duty of the “Called” comes with much responsibility. The charge of Pastoral Leadership has so many expectations that it often becomes difficult to focus on the things that benefit the Pastoral Leader. This class will help Clergy in leadership find a way to get respite. The class will allow the leader to be okay with and deliberately make time to rest just as Jesus did when he occasionally “stepped away” from ministry and people.

8. Be On Guard

Course#: 1600.2

Instructor: Pastor Ryan Smalls

Materials will Be Provided by the Instructor

The church of today faces various physical threats. Perhaps directed towards the leader, or if a member is facing threats from someone, the church needs to serve as a refuge spiritually and physically. This class will offer suggestions to assist those who are charged with the responsibility of protecting the church. This is not a self-defense class, but a class that will allow the students to return back to their respective churches with information to keep people safe, while in the custody of sanctuaries, with tools to manage unruly guests and respond to potential threats.

9. Sunday School Teacher Training

Course #: 524.2

Instructor: Dr Terry Streeter

Book: The House that Jesus Built: Leading Our Churches Back to God's Original Blueprint, by Natalie Runion

In this course we will explore the various textbooks used for Sunday School. We will also assist the teachers in creating an exciting lesson plan for their students each Sunday. In this class the offerings of commentaries and resources to enhance the teaching and preparation are vital. This class will allow teachers to glean from each other if success is planted in certain areas versus others. The goal is to have the teachers to be encouraged to continue this labor with innovation and excitement.

10. Solving Church Conflict

Course #: 409.16

Instructor: Dr. Tyrell Brown

Book: How to Handle & Overcome Conflict in the Church, by Dr. Tyrell Brown

They say that "Church Hurt" is one of the worst forms of hurt. This course will explore some of the solutions to implement in the areas of the most frequent issues of contention. This gathering will be deemed a "Safe Space" for those who are carrying the burden of delayed reconciliation and uncertainty for their worship community. The broad array of issues will assist the students to start the process of healing to be an effective Christian and a vital church member.

11. Esther Anointing

Course #126.85

Instructor: Min. Diane Brandon

Book: Be Committed: Ruth/Esther, by Warren Wiersbe

After the election bid of the first Black Vice President ended the way it did, this country has to face its decision with a new perspective. The call of Black women to save this country has been the cornerstone of society, and that weight has consequences. This class will examine the role of women of color in society and how to rescue her people even from their own decisions. Black women have been the rescuers of our culture in the homes, communities, and churches. Esther has something to say about this to keep the Black women in our congregations encourage to continue the work of their calling.

12. The "ClapBack!" Young Adults (18-35)

Course# 410.10

Instructor: Chez Gibson

Book: A Practical Guide to Culture: Helping the Next Generation Navigate Today's World, by John Stonestreet & Brett Kunkle

and learn about everyday technology. Students will engage themselves by experimenting with project learning. This class will focus on visual communication designed with an emphasis on digital media. Technology in our current times and beyond is crucial, if we as a Convention want to gain more youth, and retain our seasoned members.

4. Estate Planning/Wills

Course #6800

Instructor: Attorney Nadine Nunn

Materials and Literature Provided by Instructor

There are various levels of estate planning. Some key components consist of the following:

- Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care
- Designation of Funeral Representatives
- Deed (Lady Bird or Trusts)
- Wills

Estate planning is one of the most important (and complicated) financial decisions a person can make, made even more difficult by the emotions driven by contemplating one's own mortality, according to the Wall Street Journal and New York Times. The objective to estate planning is to record a plan for distributing your life's assets upon your demise. It encompasses elements of money, taxes, family dynamics and emotions. Our culture must take control of our financial futures, preserve cultural legacies, and contribute to the unity and purpose of our communities. This process also enhances generational wealth.

5. Why Am I Baptist?

Course#: 180.4

Instructor: Dr. Michael Harris

Book: A History of the Black Baptist Church: I Don't Feel No Ways Tired, by Wayne E. Croft Sr.

This class will equip the student with knowledge of their Baptist denomination and answer some questions concerning the polity of their faith. Exploring the first Black Baptist, the Baptist Conventions, Baptist Articles of Faith, and the innovations of polity that makes the Black Baptist church inclusive to the post-modern generation. This class will send the student home with invigorated knowledge of why they practice the polity of Baptist. This will invoke pride in their doctrinal faith and participation in all Baptist convening and position.

6. "Keeping It 100!" Enhancing Worship Service

Course#: 525.8

This class is designed for Millennials and Gen Z to touch basis with their Christian duty while being in the thick of the world. These represented generations are known for having access to knowledge and have no problem asking the pertinent questions of today. We wanna Keep it 100 in this class when facing the realities of life while walking in Christ. The student will leave knowing that the “ClapBack” to people is not as welcomed as the Clap for who and what God is in their lives.

13. Deans Workshop

Course#: 906.2

Instructor: Sis Wallet Stroud, Dr. Leverette Bryant, Dr Clifton Caldwell

Book: Get Used to Different: A Student Guide to The Chosen, by Amanda Jenkins, Dallas Jenkins & Jeremiah Smith

This is a gathering for all Deans of our Convention. Guidelines will be presented for certification within the Congress department of the PNBC, Inc. We will meet to discuss curriculum and suggested courses for the upcoming year. We will guide you on creating a productive and fruitful Congress Session on the local level. This workshop will allow all levels of the Convention to be on one accord.

14. The Assist: Associate Ministers are the Point Guards of Worship

Course#: 900.10

Instructor: Dr Felix Williams

Book: Christian Ministers Manual, by Guthrie Veech

This class is for associate ministers and clergy who have the privilege of being a servant to the church and their Pastor. In this class the student will be able to better understand the role of a Pastor to the people and the associate to the Pastor. The student will also be equipped with the best information that assists the Pastor to be the BEST Pastor they can be. From sermon “do’s and don’ts” to managing the spiritual energy during the worship service. The student will understand the effect of their assistance and their unique gift offered to the ministry under the umbrella of the lead minister/pastor. This class will also be a good class for those who feel “Called” to ministry and perhaps are having struggles with whom God called you to be.

Performing Arts Division

Praise Dance Ministry

Course#: 920.41

Instructor: Sis. Talisha Davis

The class will show the importance of creative dance within the worship ministry of the local church. It will also show how this medium can be used to enhance an appreciation for the fine art of dance from a Christian perspective.

Youth Division

1. The Drip: Even Me Lord (Ages 14-17)

Course#: 314.10

Instructor: Rev. Maisha Lindsey

This class is for the High School students contending with other faiths and cultural influences. From the classic hymn, “Even Me” this class is to show the student that God desires even them, no matter their faults. God will allow glorious drops of anointing to fall fresh on them and they can walk into every situation, faithfully confident, with the “Drip” of God on them.

2. Aura: God Covers the Youth (Ages 8-13)

Course#: 301.6

Instructor: Sis. Donita Coney

There are times when our youth are just participants in ministry without the understanding that God covers them beyond the church. This class will encourage the youth of this age bracket to know that God is with them in the class as much as God is with them in the church. God is also with them in their sports and all the extracurricular activities they are involved in. Knowing this, our youth shall leave knowing that they are victorious (no matter the outcomes) because God is with them.

3. I Am a Part (Ages 4-7)

Course#: 214.2.6

Instructor: Sis. Adrienne Journey

Book: God Loves You (Coloring Book)

This class is to let the littlest of our church know that they too have a place in the ministry of the church. We want our babies to know that they are not overlooked, and their contributions are just as important as everyone else's.
